

Keep the Kidneys Well

Health Is Worth Saving, and Some Barre People Know How to Save It.

Many Barre people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys, when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger, when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Barre citizen's recommendation:

Mrs. Della Stephens, 167 Main street, Barre, Vt., says: "I know from experience that Doan's Kidney Pills are a reliable remedy. My first trial of them dates back three or four years ago. Severe pains in my back caused me no end of suffering, and mornings, when I awoke, I was stiff and lame across the kidneys. A tired, languid feeling clung to me, I had headaches and dizzy spells and was also bothered a great deal by a kidney weakness. Good reports about Doan's Kidney Pills led me to try them. They help me from the first, and continued use relieved all my suffering."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Saved at Death's Door.

The door of death seemed ready to open for Murray W. Ayers of Transit Bridge, N. Y., when his life was wonderfully saved. "I was in a dreadful condition," he writes. "My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, emaciated from losing 40 pounds, growing weaker daily, violent liver trouble pulling me down to death in spite of doctors. Then at last medicine—Electric Bitters—cured me. I regained the 40 pounds lost and now am well and strong." For all stomach, liver and kidney troubles, Electric Bitters is the supreme. 50c at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

The Dramatic club of Brookfield had quite a large house here last Monday evening.

Mr. Hamel, our French shoemaker, in the old Knosh House, is ill with heart trouble.

At recent accounts, Don A. Earle was in New Britain, Conn., setting up a new engine in a large shoe factory.

Mrs. George W. Nichols is very feeble at the present time, and we are told that she does not have the use of the lower part of her body.

Mrs. Albert R. Martin fell on ice near her home on Wednesday morning and sustained severe bruises, but Dr. Watson thinks no bones were broken.

Harry Whitney has been left very lame by the run of rheumatic fever he had a while ago, but he is actively engaged in his business of sawing wood with a gasoline engine.

Members of the Masonic lodge and their families, and also members of the Eastern Star and their families, are invited to a social on Thursday evening of this week at the Masonic hall in the basement block.

Lewis M. Seaver, our representative in the legislature, will be a candidate for county senator in the next legislature. We hope he may succeed in getting the position, believing he is capable of filling it with honor.

The harvesting of ice at the Cutter pond is now well under way. M. G. Lamson, who puts the ice in blocks there for sale, had been troubled a little to meet all the demands promptly, we think, but he is now ready for that.

Mrs. George C. Earle hopes she is making a little progress healthwise, though a very feeble woman yet. True to her nature and years of practice, she is holding "Satin" at bay, with her busy hands and old-time knitting needles, and his majesty will find, if he tries to engage her in mischief, still that he may "get hung in her yarn," or be punctured by her worse than hat pins.

We have just had the great pleasure of looking over a new textbook that is to be used in our graded school, with the title, "Agriculture for Beginners." The book was prepared by the editor of The American Agriculturist, and by the president and one of the professors of the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts. It has 281 illustrations and is in every way beautifully printed. The subject matter of the book is exceedingly interesting. As the school has passed for dropping "book learning" for farming, we see not why our school board did not do a very wise thing in introducing this textbook into our schools.

Sunday evening at 7 p. m. at the Congregational church, the following musical program will be given under the direction of Prof. W. E. Randall, assisted by Mrs. A. N. Fellows at the organ. Rev. D. H. Strong will make the announcements, with a short sketch of the composers. The program will consist of the following: Anthem by full chorus, "The Heavens Are Telling" (Hayden); "Not a Sparrow Falter" (W. F. S.); "Oh, Give Thanks" (Mozart); "O Heavenly Lamb of God" (George M. Evans); solo by Miss Nixon, "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah" (Lerman); solo by Mrs. Jones, "Christ Alone" by Pearson Randall; "Johanna" (Thurber Parker); violin solo by C. Spencer, "Trombones" (Adolph Jensen); song by female quartet, and other songs by the entire audience. It is intended to make this a special feature once a month, and it is hoped that they will be the means of getting out a large audience.

A joint installation of the officers of Williamstown lodge, I. O. O. F., and Fraternity Rebekah lodge was held Friday evening, January 14, the hall being filled with local members and about 35 members of Hawatix and Bright Star Rebekah lodges of Barre. The installing officers were O. H. Greene of Randolph, district deputy grand master of the Odd Fellows, and Mrs. Elizabeth Booth of Randolph, district deputy grand president of the Rebekahs. The officers of the Odd Fellows lodge are as follows: N. G. Melvin E. Burnham; V. G. Percy J. Jeffords; secretary, Will Lougheed; treasurer, Maynard F. Spencer; chaplain, John Dow; warden, Henry Drift; conductor, E. P. Rowell; J. G. Geo. D. Walker; O. G. Ralph Spencer; R. S. N. G. Hiram S. Drury; I. S. N. G. W. G. Ditty; R. S. V. G. Clinton W. Cram; L. S. V. G. A. H. Jewett; R. S. S. Harnes; Richard L. S. S. Thomas; Jameson. The officers of Fraternity Rebekah lodge are as follows: J. G. Mrs. Lilla M. Jeffords; V. G. Mrs. Mabel M. Wheatley; secretary, Mrs. Martha Brinkley; treasurer, Mrs. Jennie Drury; chaplain, Mrs. Mary E. McAllister; warden, Mrs. Laura Spencer; conductor, Mrs. Jennie Dow; J. G. Mrs. Carrie Lougheed; O. G. Geo. D. Walker; R. S. N. G. Mrs. Jennie Spencer; E. S. N. G. Mrs. Lizzie B. Rowell; R. S. V. G. Mrs. Marcia Savary; L. S. V. G. Miss Millie J. Drury. The installation ceremony was followed by speeches by the grand officers and several of the visiting members from Barre, after which an excellent banquet was served.

Through the efforts of Cabot grange, there will be an agricultural meeting in the town hall next Saturday afternoon and evening. Several speakers from out of town are expected, and it is hoped the townspeople will take extra pains to be present. The grange hall will be open and warm for the comfort and accommodation of any who may have a lunch with them.

Two games of basket ball played in this place Saturday night between the Cabot high school and Goddard seminary, second, and Cabot high school second and Montpelier grammar school, resulted in favor of the Cabot teams. The score of the game of Cabot high school was 24 to 19, the second team with Montpelier grammar school, 10 to 9.

A. M. Foster recently received the news of the death of his only remaining sister, Mrs. Luce Blanchard, at the home of her son, George, at Brooks, Mass., at the advanced age of 82 years. She was a daughter of George and Polly Foster and was born in Cabot, Vt., at the time of the rebellion. Mr. Blanchard enlisted in the army and laid down his life there, leaving a family of five children, whom Mrs. Blanchard reared for and gave them all a good education. She was a member of the Methodist church, a devoted worker and a constant attendant at divine worship, when health permitted, and often walked a mile to be present at the midweek prayer meeting. She leaves two brothers and three children.

PLAINFIELD.

Death of Clark Webster Sturtevant at Hillsboro, N. H.

The following article, copied from the Hillsboro, N. H., Messenger, will be of interest to the friends of the deceased in this place, of which he was a native:

"Clark Webster Sturtevant passed away January 5, 1910, after an illness of about four months. He was born September 12, 1830, and was the son of Sewall and Orlana (Batchelder) Sturtevant of Hillsboro, N. H. When a child, he was sent with his parents to Barre, where his education was obtained. When twenty-one years of age, he worked in Nashua, N. H., for a few years and then married Roxanna M. Robbins of Hillsboro. They lived in Barre four years and then came to Hillsboro, where he has resided most of the time since.

"His occupation was farming, mostly, although he taught singing in his own town and in the towns for miles around. Music was his greatest delight, and he and his violin were inseparable companions. When coming to Hillsboro to be united with the Congregational church at the Center, where he held the office of deacon and was chorister for twenty years.

"His wife died in 1881, leaving one son, Sewall M. Sturtevant, now of Wakefield, Mass., and three daughters—Mrs. Orlana Powers of Benning, N. H.; Mrs. Lillie Collette of Hillsboro, N. H.; and Mrs. Hattie Farrar of New Bedford, Mass. One brother, Orrin Sturtevant of Berlin, Vt., and eight grandchildren, besides several nephews and nieces, survive him.

"He was a good citizen and a kind and obliging neighbor, and will be missed in the community where he lived.

"The funeral was from the church at the Center Friday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Wallace, assisted by Miss Taft, officiating. Two violin solos were beautifully rendered by Frank Rumble. Interment was in the Center cemetery."

There is nothing that will create sickness or cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people daily contract serious maladies simply through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge everyone suffering from any stomach derangement, indigestion or dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, to try Russell's Dyspepsia Tablets, with the distinct understanding that we will refund their money without question or formality, if after reasonable use of this medicine they are not satisfied with the results.
